MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Elections are over and your slate of officers for next year are myself as President (my last year, so start thinking if you'd like to train with me for next year), VP Shows Janine "Goldie" Aguilar, Treasurer Anna Don and Secretary Eledel Giddings (many thanks to Eledel for taking over our website responsibilities as well!).

Remaining in position are our beloved past president, Nancy Holmberg, and our diligent Members at Large, Donna Lam, Paula Weech, Dennis Garrison and Sue Ritz.

A grateful shout out to our budget committee, Nancy Holmberg, Anna Don, Carolyn Streed and Paula Weech, who helped to craft our 2019-2020 budget. This was a major endeavor necessary to keep our Guild and Gallery thriving and within budget, produced ON TIME!

While many of you may be in and out of Tucson, keep your eye out for our wonderful summer show lineup. Check your website www.southernazwatercolorguild.com for upcoming shows and dates. Currently on display is artwork created by SAWG members who have never entered one of our shows. This is the brainchild of Donna Lam – who is both the chair and exhibitor! Congratulations to them for gathering up the courage to enter our "Shy Artists' Debut Show." This runs concurrently with the wonderful artwork of Frank Rose, our former SAWG president and author of a book on the Catalina Mountains, that includes many of his watercolors and is on sale at the gallery. Kudos to the quality of our first time exhibitors – if you haven't seen their beautiful work, you are missing out. Here's hoping they will now regularly enter SAWG shows!!

Next up is our exciting Veterans' Art Show – spread the word – it's all media and the entry deadline in July 19th. It's open to any creative member of the community who wore the U.S. uniform. Please spread the word! Do you have neighbors, friends, connections to an organization that serves veterans? We have flyers! This is a reception you won't want to miss! Our show judge is the Deputy Commander of the Buffalo Soldiers who is coming down from Mesa with two of her members in full regalia. Join us at the gallery on Saturday, July 27th from 2 -5pm for this extraordinary event. Thanks to David, Sue and Jenny for putting together a grant entry to support this show. Although we didn't get the grant, we'll try again! Sue Ritz has expended superhuman efforts to organize this amazing event.

Our last summer show is our Second Annual "Share our Walls" show! This is open to the community for any media that will hang on our walls. This is a juried show and was a huge success last year – tell all of your friends who love to paint, draw, create photographic art – we want it all! This is a great opportunity to reach out to the public to increase public awareness of our Guild and Gallery and increase attendance and sales.

Dennis Garrison joined me in Casa Grande for a meeting with the Arizona Watercolor Association (AWA) to discuss collaboration with the other two major watercolor organizations in the state. Boards for AWA and SAWG have approved your entry into each other's workshops at member prices beginning this year, beginning a month before the workshop date to fill any vacancies. You need only be a member of one of the two organizations for this benefit.

There is ongoing discussion for a state wide juried traveling watercolor show to be held at our gallery, then at a location in the metropolitan Phoenix and Northern Arizona areas. The president of the Northern Arizona Watercolor Society (NAWS) is excited at the prospect of a show of this magnitude and quality and the resulting positive publicity for all 3 groups. If you'd like to be part of a committee to plan this exceptional event, let me know. It won't be this year, so there will be plenty of time to plan.

Our Annual Retreat is scheduled this year for Saturday, August 24th, from 1 – 4pm in rooms 30/31 on the St. Francis in the Foothills, UMC, grounds. Everyone who wants a voice in planning for next year is welcome to come. If you don't receive an invitation in early August, email me to sign up to attend. We want YOUR input!!! In that vein, keep your eyes open for Survey Monkey opinion opportunities! If you have a topic you think would appeal to the membership, let me know! President@southernazwatercolorguild.com

I'm very pleased to announce that our September program is our own fabulous artist, Fran McNeely, who will present a program on painting abstractly in watercolor. In October we welcome Nancy Huber's PowerPoint presentation on how to create paintings in the unique style she has developed – so many of our members have seen her work on the walls and asked – "How do you do that?!" All will be revealed for our October meeting!

Meanwhile, behind the scenes, your intern committee developed and posted an opening for an intern at the UA for the fall semester to work on researching website platforms and exploring/maximizing SAWG presence on Facebook and Instagram. The committee interviewed two applicants and were so impressed that they hired both! Whether we like it or not, the world is going digital and we need to develop our digital presence to continue to add members and increase our advertising presence at minimal cost. We are very excited to see what they present. Thanks to the committee members who joined me in making this happen: Dennis Garrison, Nancy Huber, Elaine Brown and Eledel Giddings. What would you like to see on our website? We'd love to have a gallery with a sample of your work included with a link to your website/contact info to increase your artwork sales and visibility.

We're doing something right! Membership this year increased by 77 new members and sales and attendance at the gallery are up substantially. We are appearing at tables at local municipal and nonprofit events – Donna Lam, Anna Don, Tony Peralta and Terri Gay manned a table at the Arizona Opera Company's "Bravo Vino" in April; Sue Ritz, Mike Dutton and I manned a table at the 100th anniversary of the American Legion. We have reserved a table at VailFest in October – let me know if you'd like to come and paint at our table! We have a canopy and a gorgeous banner designed by our fabulous Sandy Walker. Thank you for helping to promote your organization and create this new wave of enthusiasm for SAWG!!! We know we can't please everyone, but your leadership is doing its best to maximize member satisfaction and promote the gallery while upholding our high standards. We thank you for your support - and if you haven't renewed yet, NOW is the time to go online and pay for next year or print out the form and mail it in with your check.

Stay cool! Stay connected!!
Karyn

*Remember - To submit any articles for the Sketchbook to Sandy Walker, walkersj@cox.net.
Deadline is always the 15th of each month.*

Your New Management Team!

We are so grateful to every single member who steps up to help SAWG grow and thrive!!! We need to fill the position of "Corresponding Secretary" – many thanks to Joyce Becker for sending out cards and thank you letters (we have a template) this past year. It's time for someone else to volunteer to do this easy but important job that can be done totally at home. We also need someone who knows how to use or wants to learn how to use MailChimp. Sue Hildreth has sent out our eblasts for over TEN YEARS!!! Thank you, Sue! Time to transfer communication of announcements to someone new! MailChimp is easy and more visually appealing. Members send announcements to our fabulous Jenny Clark, who edits them and will forward to you for publication.

We want to schedule a New Member event each fall and spring – what a great opportunity to get to know our new members! Karyn Vampotic organizes and runs these events, but if you'd like to help hand out papers, suggest activities, all assistance is welcome! We need someone to work with our bookkeeper, Carolyn Streed – do you know that she's the only one who really knows how our money is handled? Is that scary or what? We need someone else to be in the know! The positions of President, VP of Programs, Treasurer and Secretary will all be open next year – we'd love to pair you up to work with the current position holders so that come next June, you'll be comfortable and ready to roll.

If you would like to be part of SAWG's active leadership team in these or any other way, contact Karyn at President@southernazwatercolorguild.com. Isn't it time for you to give back a little?

Meanwhile – don't sit on the sidelines – join your fellow members in active participation in this great organization!!! If you don't see your name in this email, Let's see it in the next email! The heart of a volunteer organization is – its VOLUNTEERS!!! Don't know what you'd like to do? Connect with Karyn and she'll give you suggestions that fit your time and ability requirements. We can't do this without you. If you can't commit to even a small amount of time from home to help out, consider sending a check in any amount to support YOUR Guild and Gallery!!

Best, Karyn

WEBSITE/DIGITAL HELP

We are very excited to announce that SAWG has hired two interns from the UA for the fall to research a new website platform and maximize facebook and Instagram community outreach opportunities. New member, Kari Skinner, has volunteered to do her own research and then work with the interns on presenting website options to the board. If you'd like to learn how to maximize your own ability to promote your art on facebook and Instagram, we're looking for 3 members for each digital platform to work with the interns in the fall. The world is now digital. We need members to expand their horizons and jump into the creation and maintenance of these vital portals to attract new members and promote SAWG to increase membership and gallery traffic/sales. If you don't move forward, you get left in the dust. Challenge yourself to have fun online. Unless members come forward to continue this work on line, the efforts of the interns will not be maximized.

SURVEY MONEY NEWS

Congratulations to our new members who have stepped up to join your leadership team to help sustain and promote SAWG. Carol Bjelland has graciously agreed to learn and run Survey Monkey. We want to know what YOU want and think! So, coming this summer, please look for one or two surveys a month to help your leadership team deliver services YOU want. First up will be a survey on what kind of classes you'd like to attend at the gallery – what media, what length, what times.

NEW PROGRAM CHAIR

Several members have signed up to give classes in our back gallery and to promote that, Joanne Lustre has stepped into the new position of Program Chair. She will be working with you to guide prospective instructors to our website and the mini workshop sign up run by our fabulous Gallery Schedule Advisor, Loisanne Keller, and her supporting cast of Dru Hill and Bob and Helen Jennette. Instructors are waiting to hear what techniques you want to learn! Cara Smith holds Open Studio every Tuesday from 9-12pm in the back gallery! Come on down and paint! A donation of $5.00 is suggested, but not required.

PUBLICITY

Our publicity committee is doing a wonderful job in pushing to get media coverage and distribute our literature all over town – if you have leads or want to join Sandra Montgomery, Risa Waldt, Edlynn Sillman, Sue Hildreth, Lisa Bagshaw, Nancy Holmberg, Carol Bjelland and Cara Smith – contact Sandra at sanfmontgomery@aol.com. Many thanks to this vibrant committee!

GALLERY/DOCENTING

Sending love to our hardworking Gallery Manager, Monica Hart, who makes sure the gallery looks great and runs even better! Her name is synonymous with "dedication." She has an amazing supporting cast! Thanks to her assistant, Donna Lam, Docent Coordinator and Assistant, Shannon Russell and Karen Reichert, Gallery Orientation Advisor, Kitty Sturrock, Gallery/Docent Orientation Instructors, Karen Brungardt, Judy Constantine, Monica Hart, Kat Manton-Jones and Sue Rumsey, our Reception Advisor, Kathi Sanders, Gallery Committee Assistants for Special Projects, Christine Hines and Donna Lam.

MEMBER TO MEMBER

Joann Lustre is also taking over the formerly titled "Seat Announcements" now to be known as "Member to Member." Watch your emails for the opportunity to publicize classes you are teaching, exhibits you have entered, awards you have won, art items you have for sale and anything else art related news that you would like to share with our membership! We're excited to update this terrific vehicle to connect our members.

SKETCHBOOK

Many thanks to Nancy Cole has taken on the position of the Sketchbook editor, working with our inimitable Sandy Walker to bring you this newsletter! Sandy does an extraordinary job helping design all of our publicity flyers and posters, while getting out the Sketchbook and putting together our Directory. She's a super star!

My sincere apologies to the people that I know I've left out – send me an email and I'll be sure to include you in the next edition of the Sketchbook.

— Karyn

CERTIFICATES/AV/ SCHOLARSHIP/VIDEO CLUB/MEMBERSHIP

A shout out to Renee Pearson who does our Certificates, Pat Jordan who manages your bins and card sales, our AV gals who get to work with our gorgeous new equipment (purchased through the generosity of Bob and Helen Jennette!) for all of our programs: Helen Baldridge and Sue Ritz. Dick Butler has taken over our Scholarship program. He's working with the UA for selection of a promising watercolor student as a recipient of next year's scholarship funds. Karen Brungardt will return in September with her list of SAWG's large library of DVD rentals available for $1 a month! New member Kim Fernandez has assumed responsibility as Captain of the SAWG Video Club. (Watch for an eblast on August 15th to sign up – max of 12. You must sign up again if you belonged this past year. First 12 are in.)

Many thanks to her!
Last, but certainly not least, we all owe a huge thank you to Del Marinello who is taking all of your renewals and new membership applications, and runs our database. If you haven't already renewed – this is your reminder to do it today.

WORKSHOPS

New member, Kay Sullivan, is not only our new Western Fed delegate, but also our new Workshop Registrar. She will be handling all of your applications to enter our wonderful upcoming workshops. Many thanks to Nancy Holmberg for chairing the workshop committee and selecting our talent along with her workshop committee who did a fabulous job seeking out and scheduling top quality talent for this year and upcoming years - Robbie Summers, Renee Pearson, Joyce Becker, Rosemary Carmody, Carolyn Streed, Paula Weech, Victoria Wills, Sherry Matlack, Janet Johnson and Laurie Levon.

By the way, if you are interested in entering workshops held by the Arizona Watercolor Association (AWA) our boards have voted to accept workshop applicants from each other's group at member prices (without membership requirement) a month prior to our workshops to fill any vacant spots.

Summer Publicity '19

The Publicity Committee has worked diligently to promote SAWG's summer shows with the delivery of our beautiful new Summer Show Rack Cards (thank you Sandy Walker!), flyers for the Shy Artists' Debut Show, Frank Rose's Exhibit, reception and book signing, and the Veterans' Art Show to public venues throughout the city. Thanks to Judith Billings for encouraging Steve Kozachik to speak out about his late mother's artwork prominently displayed for sale at our gallery. SAWG received television and newspaper coverage on Marian Kozachik's life work. Her extraordinary art will hang in the back gallery throughout the Summer.

The Publicity Committee is still working on getting additional media coverage for the upcoming Veterans' Art Show.

Publicity committee member Risa Waldt gave a watercolor workshop to the Myositis Support Group on June 7th. There were seven people at the workshop and the director of the group, Vicki Jahaske, was most complimentary of Risa's program.

"Risa brought a peaceful beauty to the room and made art come alive before our eyes. We all enjoyed learning about brush strokes and layering techniques. It was especially heartening to watch her work patiently with those with limited arm movement. It is so meaningful to have tangible proof of ability. This thank you does not do enough to convey my heartfelt gratitude."

Thank you Risa! for the excellent public relations work in getting SAWG's name out into the community.

In May, during my docent day, I reviewed the comments of our survey for the source of our visitors. Beginning in May, many visitors came after seeing the docents painting in the front window. Thank you, docents!!!!

There are tangible results from the show listings of the publications of Caliente, Zocalo, and Desert Leaf. We had several people mention they found us "online" including our SAWG website. Some picked up our Show rack cards and flyers around town. A few came in from our Show rack cards being in the Nothing Bundt Cake store, so it proves effective to offer our materials to our Williams Centre Plaza neighbors. Still the bulk of visitors are returning folks and word of mouth from membership. All these efforts add up to increasing the SAWG Gallery and the SAWG Guild's public awareness.

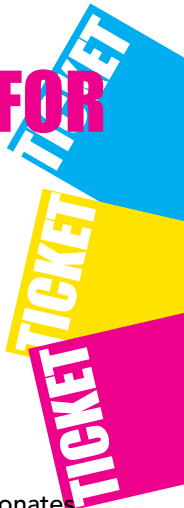

Let me take a moment to send a big "Thank You!" for the miles and efforts by the Publicity Committee: Risa Waldt, Sue Hildreth, Edlynn Sillman, Lisa Bagshaw, Nancy Holmberg (our Green Valley connection) and our new members, Carol Bjelland and Cara Smith. We really appreciate your efforts for a job well done. Keep up the energy! And keep talking up our Guild and Gallery to all of your friends and neighbors – if you have an opportunity to post anywhere about our upcoming shows (see our website for details) you can help increase our community footprint!

Sandra Montgomery — Publicity Committee Chair
